

Repaso: Nouns, adjectives, and gustar

Preview

- Nouns
- Adjectives
- Gustar

Nouns

- Nouns for people have natural gender.
- Other nouns have gender based on their endings. Still other nouns have gender that must be memorized.
- To form the plural of a noun, add -s to a word ending in a vowel and -es to a word ending in a consonant.

Masculine

male person	→	amigo(s)
masculine based on ending	→	libro(s)
gender must be memorized	→	papel(es)

Nouns

- Nouns for people have natural gender.
- Other nouns have gender based on their endings. Still other nouns have gender that must be memorized.
- To form the plural of a noun, add -s to a word ending in a vowel and -es to a word ending in a consonant.

Feminine

amigaa(s) ← female person

mesaa(s) ← feminine based on ending

clase(s) ← gender must be memorized

Adjectives

- Adjectives agree with nouns in gender and number.
- Many adjectives end in -o or -r for masculine and -a or -ra for feminine. Other adjectives end in -e or other consonants for both masculine and feminine.
- To make an adjective plural, add -s to a vowel or -es to a consonant.

	Masculine	Feminine
-o changes to -a →	buen o(s)	buen a(s)
same form for m. and f. {	grande (s)	grande (s)
	intelectual (es)	intelectual (es)

Gustar

- To say what you or others like, use this formula:

